TO STUDENTS AND FRIENDS OF WESLEYAN:

The 1937 Murrumontis was so splendidly done and met with such favor among the students that the success of the present edition seemed assured. A worthy student project deserves the enthusiastic support of all friends of youth. It is only by activity that initiative and skill can be developed. The members of the editorial staff are to be commended for the care and faithfulness which has characterized their work, as well as for the artistry of the production. While it is only a partial record, nevertheless it furnishes a fair picture of student life.

ROY McCUSKEY,

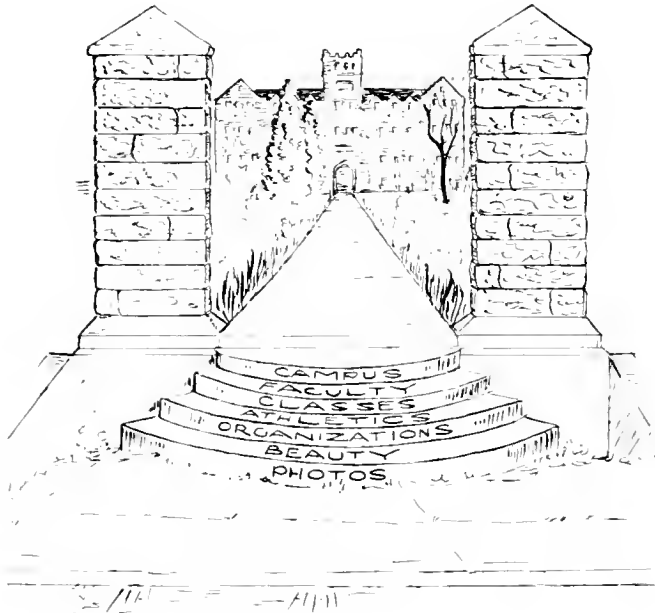

President.

"CEBE" ROSS

Our Mentor

THIRTEEN golden years of service as director of the athletic destinies of Wesleyan College is the fine record claimed by our popular mentor, Cecil Byron Ross, better known in sporting circles and on the campus as "Cebe". Heralded as perhaps the greatest small-college coach in the country, he has succeeded in raising Wesleyan to the high position she now holds in the national spotlight.

Teams coached by Ross are respected and feared by college coaches and players throughout the East, and well is that so, for fighting Bobcats have downed such outstanding teams as those of Syracuse, Duquesne, and the Navy, only to mention a few. Many athletes whose names appear daily in newspapers throughout the country received the major portion of their training under his watchful eye.

Almost every other year he is forced to undergo a rebuilding program, when he sees the boys he has developed and trained pass out of the college halls and into life to win renown for themselves. But every season he puts forth an eleven that Wesleyanites are proud to claim as their own.

Ross himself was a star in his own right. After four years of spectacular halfbacking at Buckhannon High, he picked up the trail to fame at Wesleyan, where he starred for four years. As a climax to his brilliant career he was accorded honorable mention to All-America, an honor which few small-college athletes attain.

Coach Ross has given football in this sector much of the popular appeal it now has, and, incidentally, has given Wesleyan added prestige. It would indeed be hard to imagine a Wesleyan College without including her own Cebe Ross.

Cheerleaders

Let's give a hand to the cheerleaders now! They have faithfully been to every game of the season, full of spirit and always encouraging good sportsmanship. They have aided greatly in sending the Fighting Bobcats to their victory.

Jim Ellis, Director of Publicity, Department of Athletics

Thank you, Jim, for your good work. The Bobcats do the fighting, but it is Jim that makes it known. He goes before them into the sporting world as a herald of the coming victory.

The Wesleyan Bobcats

Football Season, 1937

WITH the injury jinx hovering constantly about the Bobcats, the bright prospects of early September faded out of the picture as the season progressed. A potentially great team, riddled by injuries of all sorts, went down fighting before seven of the nine foes they faced. No credit due the team must be taken from it, for in every case but one the Bobcats battled on even terms and in most cases the margin of defeat was very slight. It must here be stated that the starting lineup for Wesleyan was the same on no two occasions.

Hopes ran high for a victory over our oldest rivals—the West Virginia Mountaineers, for the contest was brought to Buckhannon for the first time in history. But before an overflow crowd of 7,000 the 'Cats went down gamely 14-0, when the heavier Mountain Men, who made little headway through our line, took to the air to score both touchdowns. In this game our star quarterback, Jack LaBay, was put on the shelf by a severe knee injury for the most of the season.

Then came the discouraging 39-0 defeat administered by the high-powered Duquesne Night Riders under the lights at Forbes Field, Pittsburgh. The Dukes were in rare form that night and probably could have licked any team in the country had they played them on that date. This was the only game in which the Rossmen were noticeably outplayed.

The 'Cats then narrowly missed the margin of a win over the touted George Washington U. Cardinals, 18-13 in a contest at Washington. A week later they dropped a disheartening 7-0 decision to Davis-Elkins college after playing on the Senators' goal-line all afternoon. Then followed the scoreless tie with St. Vincent on a sloppy gridiron at Latrobe, Pa. It was in this contest that six of our regulars suffered severe burns from the lime on the wet field. These six were out of action for several weeks.

Seriously crippled without the services of many regulars, the 'Cats were edged out by the Waynesburg Yellow Jackets, 7-0. Then came another discouraging loss when Wesleyan was beaten 21-0 by Catholic U., after playing them to a 0-0 standstill the first half.

However, victory was not to be denied, for, with most of the injured men back in the lineup, the Bobcats came through with a glorious 7-0 triumph over Salem. The Orange and Black dominated the play at every stage of the fray. In the season's finale, the Wesleyan gridders went down into defeat, 27-0, after holding the Marshall attack in check for one half. Thus one of the leanest years in Wesleyan's history was brought to a close.

Bobcats of 1937

PETE KURLINSKI, tackle—"Pete" came to us with a splendid record at Benwood Union High, and has lived up to his name for three seasons. Next year he'll be back at a tackle position and his clever line play will doubtless bring joy to the hearts of Wesleyan fans.

WILLIAM CICCONE, guard—"Willie" made the first tackle of the season for the 'Cats and kept on starring in every game he played. He is a hard charger and a vicious tackler, so we're glad to have him with us again.

JAMES CAMPBELL, guard—"Big Jim" rated the outstanding-sophomore checklist for the nation and came through in grand style. His offensive and defensive play leaves little to be desired and he has two big seasons left.

VICTOR DEAN, guard—"Vic" deserves as much praise as any boy on the squad. Injuries followed him all fall, but he'll be one of the bulwarks of the line when Cebe's next edition of gridders comes out.

MIKE BRANCHIK, tackle—"Killer" is another in the long list of stars that Akron (Ohio) Kenmore High has sent to us. He is big and rangy and was one of the most feared men in the Bobcat forward wall. We're sorry to lose him.

MIKE CUTNEY, guard—Here's a boy who seems destined to play a leading role in the success of future Bobcat elevens. He proved his mettle this year and hard, fast charges and clean blocks featured Mike's play in every game in which he played.

GEORGE MIKE, tackle—G. Mike received Little all-America rating last year and hangs up his cleats with an enviable record for his four years of regular duty in orange and black livery.

KENNETH MOORE, center—Kenny is generally regarded the best center in the state, and won an all-conference berth at that spot. A par excellence snapper back, he was a constant menace to the opposing backfields all season. A shoulder operation performed this spring should make him even better next September.

PAUL COOL, fullback—"Pete" won the starting assignment at fullback for several games and turned in good accounts of himself on every occasion. He was particularly outstanding in the St. Vincent and Catholic U. games.

CARL WEBER, halfback—"Buck" is the Bobcat's powerhouse back and one of Wesleyan's most consistent ground-gainers. He is a smashing line plunger and in addition a dependable safety man. He'll be around Wesleyan again next fall.

GEORGE GRUBB, halfback—George is the lightest man on the squad and incidentally the fastest. What he lacks in weight he makes up for in speed and elusiveness. Give him the ball and a little interference and he's off for a touchdown. We'll hear more from him next year.

LEE COLEMAN, halfback—"Brownie" played inspired ball all season, both on the offense and defense. He was rated one of the best punters in the East by Washington scribes, his long boots frequently pulling his team out of a tough spot.

STROMEDE MULLEN, fullback—"Moon" is the hardest driving back in the Bobcat lineup, but was hampered by injuries all season. A capable punter and sure tackler, Mullen is one of the most versatile performers on the Methodist eleven. Wesleyan fans are expecting big things of him in the future.

ADDISON McKOWN, quarterback—"Addy" came into the spotlight when injuries forced the star LaBay to the sidelines and won the acclaim of the Bobcat boosters with his brilliant blocking and backing up the line. He is being groomed as regular quarter next fall.

JACK LaBAY, quarterback—Cast into the role of blocking quarter, Jack has been the key man in Wesleyan's backfield for the past four years. A superb blocker and tackler, LaBay will go down in history as one of the greatest of Wesleyan field generals.

JOE GILMORE, halfback—"Jumping Joe" is the speed merchant of the Bobcats, well-known because of his long runs around opponents' ends. His spectacular broken-field running and pass-catching will be sorely missed, as he graduates in June.

ALLEN MACKEY, halfback—"Red" was Wesleyan's passer during the past season and his accurate heaves connected at long range as well as at short. In addition, he is an elusive runner, a good defensive man, and can hold down the kicking job capably.

Bobcats of 1937, Concluded

ARTHUR JONES, end—"Butch", another Benwood Union product, was an all-state man before he came to Wesleyan. A first-class pass receiver and adept at diagnosing plays, he performed his duties well all season.

PAUL GATSKIE, tackle—On innumerable occasions "Gats" broke through our opponent's line to nail the ballcarriers for losses. His grim determination and fine spirit, as well as his all-around ability, made him a valuable asset to the team.

JOHN ORR, end—"Johnny" had a difficult assignment and he carried it out to a high degree of satisfaction. Playing against the strong side, he smeared opposing interference, often stopping the runner for a loss. His pass-catching also won him the praise of the fans.

DAVID TENNANT, tackle—Dave plays a bang-up game at either guard or tackle, and wound up the season with a starting position. He's tough as they make them and doesn't waste any time out there on the field. Next year he'll be the man to watch in the line.

DONALD GATEWOOD, center—This is "Gatey's" third year on the team and he proved tough for our opponents. He's an artist at snapping the ball back and a solid wall on the defense. He'll be out for blood next year.

ASHFORD BROADWATER, end—"Ash" gained all-state fame at Parkersburg High and has just completed a great record here at Wesleyan. Few gains were made around this alert and aggressive wingman.

DELMAR WALKER, fullback—"Del" comes from the Ohio Valley, a region famed for its football greats. He seems certain to fall into a first team berth before long and his power and speed can well be used to Wesleyan's advantage.

CLARK THURMAN, end—"Nemo" fought his way to the top and won a starting position against Catholic U. Believing that you can't keep a good man down, he puts all he has into the ball game and gets results.

1938 Prospects

PROSPECTS for a winning team in 1938 are exceptionally bright. Although the positions vacated by the graduation of eight of our best men will be difficult to fill, we feel that Coach Ross will again put another great eleven on the field. With such backs as Moon Mullen, Buck Weber, Red Mackey, and George Grubb on hand, we feel certain that the ball-carrying assignment will be well taken care of. Addison McKown will likely handle the blocking quarter position, with "Tuffy" Richards coming up from the ranks of the freshmen to lend a hand at that spot. Del Walker, Jimmy Cain, and Joe Andrick round out the corps behind the line.

The keyman of the line, Kenny Moore, will be back again for another crack at the opposition and leaves nothing to be desired at the pivot position. Don Gatewood has already demonstrated that he can hold down center when needed. Cebe will have two brilliant guards in Mike Cutney and Bill Ciccone. Vic Dean may win a regular berth if old injuries mend properly. Jack Moore and George Snyder, who showed up well as freshmen, can handle the guard posts in the event that they are called to the front.

A host of experienced men will be striving for the tackle berths evacuated by G. Mike and Branchick. Pete Kurlinski and big Jim Campbell seem to have the inside track with Dave Tennant, Bill Wilson, and Fred Peters seeing considerable service. The wings create quite a problem, since the graduation of Broadwater and Jones leave them wide open. Paul Gatskie and Clark Thurman are the most probable choices, but Eddie Kosko and Don Steele will let themselves be heard from at this spot.

Thus Wesleyan seems destined to regain much of the prestige she lost during the past season when the whistle blows again in Bobcat Feld next fall. With an average crop of new material, Cebe Ross will be well entrenched to pilot his 'Cats to greater glory.

The schedule will be practically the same as last year with one exception. Morris-Harvey will be met at Buckhannon in the opening game, replacing George Washington U. on the card. The complete schedule is:

|                            |            |
|----------------------------|------------|
| September 24—Morris-Harvey | Buckhannon |
| October 1—West Virginia    | Morgantown |
| October 8—Davis-Elkins     | Elkins     |
| October 14—Duquesne U.     | Pittsburgh |
| October 22—Catholic U.     | Washington |
| October 29—Waynesburg      | Buckhannon |
| November 4—Salem           | Buckhannon |
| November 11—St. Vincent    | Buckhannon |
| November 24—Marshall       | Huntington |

Basketball Season, 1938

ACED with the loss of four regulars from the 1937 team, the Bobcats went through a tough schedule with only a fair showing in games won. However, we realize that a team cannot always be measured accurately by the won and lost column and so we can justly pride ourselves in our Orange and Black team this season.

Coach Ross was considerably hampered by the fact that freshmen were ineligible to play against West Virginia and Marshall. Wesleyan was consequently deficient in reserve strength and often lost games after first-team men had fouled out of the contest.

All in all, however, Wesleyan won five contests—two from Bethany and one each from Alderson-Broaddus, St. Vincent, and Fairmont. However, the margin of loss was less than three field goals in five other contests, which seems to indicate that the Methodists played on even terms with their opponents all season.

THE COMPLETE RECORD FOLLOWS:

|               |    |          |    |
|---------------|----|----------|----|
| Waynesburg    | 46 | Wesleyan | 19 |
| A.-Broaddus   | 47 | Wesleyan | 33 |
| West Virginia | 42 | Wesleyan | 23 |
| Salem         | 52 | Wesleyan | 47 |
| Glenville     | 60 | Wesleyan | 38 |
| A.-Broaddus   | 45 | Wesleyan | 52 |
| Marshall      | 71 | Wesleyan | 47 |
| Davis-Elkins  | 71 | Wesleyan | 48 |
| Fairmont      | 39 | Wesleyan | 41 |
| Bethany       | 43 | Wesleyan | 49 |
| Waynesburg    | 31 | Wesleyan | 29 |
| Fairmont      | 50 | Wesleyan | 46 |
| Salem         | 52 | Wesleyan | 39 |
| Glenville     | 49 | Wesleyan | 44 |
| Davis-Elkins  | 47 | Wesleyan | 44 |
| Marshall      | 63 | Wesleyan | 28 |
| St. Vincent   | 39 | Wesleyan | 41 |
| Bethany       | 40 | Wesleyan | 53 |
| West Virginia | 50 | Wesleyan | 34 |

JOE ANDRICK—

Joe is known for his dead-eye shots from all corners of the floor and for his never-miss policy at the foul line. His clever head-work has won many a game for the Methodists. He will be eligible for two more years.

JIM CAIN—

Here's another freshman who has showed up well in every game in which he played. His under the basket play and fine guarding will make him a valuable man during the next three seasons.

ALBIE COLEMAN—

Albie was one of the most colorful players on the court all season. Equally adept on the offense and defense, this clever center's absence will be felt, as he will graduate this June.

DON GATEWOOD—

"Gatey" plays center on the basketball team as well as on the football team. His height and agility as well as his fine shooting add power to the team.

PAUL GATSKIE—

Another football player who has turned out for basketball is this former Farmington star, who plays guard. He adds color and strength to the Bobcat lineup and is always ready to give his best.

EDDIE KOSKO—

Eddie is a freshman, coming to us from Fairmont West High. He performed well at the center position all season and is expected to do big things next year.

JIMMY HERNDON—

This midget forward is one of the fastest cagers in the state. He paced his team in scoring with 192 points and accounted for many more by his sensational passing. He'll be the man to watch again next winter.

JACK LaBAY—

LaBay has been termed as the keyman of the team. It's true that his presence seemed to give more fight to the team. The long shooting and all around ability of this fine guard will be sorely missed.

ALLEN MACKEY—

Red starred in high school and has done the same while playing with the Bobcats. He is a sure-fire shot and passes and guards as if inspired. He too, has one more turn at the wheel.

JACK MOORE—

Jack was a regular from the very first day. He had a reputation as all-state high school forward to prove, and he did even more than that. We're certainly glad to have him back with us for three more campaigns.

CARL NAYLOR—

One of the tallest men on the squad, Carl used his height to good advantage. Although not a frequent scorer, he played a consistent floor game and could be counted on.

PAUL VANDERVOORT—

Coming to us from Weston High, Vandervoort has caught the eye of Wesleyan fans, who'll look to him in the future. His shooting from the far court is little short of sensational, and he plays a bang-up passing game.

Basketball Prospects for 1939

WESLEYAN followers may expect a world-beater on the hardwood next year with the best crop of freshmen in many a day coming back again. The loss of the three veterans which would otherwise be a severe blow, will be off set by the return of a squad of experienced men. Cebe's two ace forwards, Jimmy Herndon and Joe Andrick, will be again available. For the center position, Coach Ross will have to choose between Eddie Kosko and Jim Cain, two of last season's promising freshmen. Wesleyan will doubtless be firmly entrenched at the guard posts with "Red" Mackey and Jack Moore on hand.

When they again take the floor, the Bobcats will have a reserve strength which they noticeably lacked during the past season. Such steady performers as "Moon" Mullen, Don Gatewood, Paul Gatskie, Junior Gawthrop, "Zeke" Turner, Bill Kiddy, Dave Bisset, Woody Wilson, Don Steele, and a lad named Phares can all be counted upon to come through when the opportunity presents itself.

So it appears that the immediate future may bring the return of Wesleyan supremacy in collegiate basketball circles in this state—a position which she once enjoyed and now again is within her grasp.

OUR UNDEFEATED NETMEN

Varsity Tennis

WESLEYAN'S tennis team enjoyed a highly successful, although somewhat abbreviated season, boasting an undefeated team which won the state collegiate tennis championship. Of the thirteen matches originally scheduled only five were actually played. The result was a clean sweep for the Bobcat racqueteers.

In the first contest the Methodist netters triumphed 8-1 over the Salem Tigers on the latter's courts. Beckley college proved to be easy prey for the Bobcats, who swept all their matches, 6-0. Fairmont State appeared on the local courts only to take it on the chin, 8-1. A few days later Coach Hallam's net crew meted out a similar punishment to the Glenville Pioneers, 8-1. In the final match the 'Cats journeyed to Fairmont and came back with a 5-2 decision over the Fairmont Teachers.

In winning the state crown, Dave Gray, John Elsey, and John Arnold, number 1, 2, and 3, respectively, made clean sweeps of all their matches to remain undefeated. Altogether only a total of five individual matches were dropped to opponents.

Members of the tennis team other than those named above are Junior Foster, Jack Anderson, Sam Foglesong, Charles Britton, and Morris Lowman.

Ten matches have been scheduled to date, two each with West Virginia, Salem, Glenville, Fairmont State, and Davis-Elkins. The only member lost from last year's championship team was John Arnold. Present indications point to another undefeated season.

Ladies' Intramural Sports

DURING the past year the women's intramural athletics has enjoyed another highly successful time. There has been hockey, volleyball, basketball, and baseball. Under the able coaching of Miss Alice Nason, head of the women's physical education department, these teams have done fine work, both on the field and on the floor.

Captains of the teams include: Freshmen: Hockey, Nell Jean Hermans; Volleyball, Frances Dixon; Basketball, Nell Jean Hermans. The Sophomores had as their captains: Hockey, Mary Fortney; Volleyball, Elise Brannon; Basketball, Betty Jackson. Junior captains include: Hockey, Katharine Martin; Volleyball, Isabelle White; Basketball, Betty Lou Neff.

The Seniors, one of the most outstanding group of girls have been unusually successful during their four years in college. We wish to congratulate them on their fine spirit and their interest in sports. Their captains were: Hockey, Mary Pew; Volleyball, Lavaughn Finister; and Basketball, Hazeldean Gordon.

MEN'S intramural athletics is enjoying another highly successful year under the direction of Mr. Reemsnyder. Last year more than 150 men participated in the inter-class games and there is even a better response than that this year.

Three teams tied for the trophy last year—the juniors, the sophomores, and the freshmen. To the winner of the inter-class contests goes the McCuskey trophy, now in its fourth year. It was first won by the freshmen of '34-'35 and again by the freshmen of '35-'36.

So far this year the sophomores seem certain to win the cup. The sophs have taken the speedball, touch football, and both basketball crowns, losing only the volleyball title. Several sports remain to be played yet, including ping pong, handball, softball, horse shoes, tennis, and swimming.

LAMP FOR STUDYING

Buy a lamp that gives the right amount of high quality light. Under good light you can do your studying much faster, with an appreciable decrease in nerve fag. To study under poor light for an extended period of time burns up more of your energy than a fast run several miles in length.

Treat yourself right—buy certified I. E. S. Better Sight lamps for your own use.

THE ROGER SMITH HOTEL

WASHINGTON, D. C.

During the past year, when you men gave us your valued patronage, this hotel was under Roger Smith Management—though the old name "The Powhatan" still remained. Now, an extensive alteration and decoration program has created even more cordial and inviting accommodations.

You will still find the same delicious food—the same low prices—the same cordial persons to greet you. The Roger Smith is really an old friend in new guise, ready to welcome and serve you.
